

Helping Wisconsin K-12 schools go solar!

Solar on Schools is an initiative of the Midwest Renewable Energy Association (MREA). We've compiled free resources to help schools overcome many of the informational, technical, and financial barriers common to solar procurement. The initiative educates schools on the benefits of solar energy, provides resources to simplify the project development process, and offers grants to lower the upfront cost of solar. MidwestRenew.org/solar-on-schools

PROGRAM OFFERINGS

- Solar Schools 101 Intro Video and FAQs
- Online Resource Center
 - Expert-Presented Topic Videos
 - Wisconsin Solar School Case Studies
 - School RFP Template and Scoring Rubric
 - And More
- In-Kind Solar Module Grant
 - Up to 50kW DC donated
 - Valued up to $20,000
- Curriculum and Teacher Training Resources

BENEFITS OF SOLAR FOR YOUR SCHOOL

- Financial and Operational Savings
- Environmental Benefits
- Emergency Response and Resilience
- Community Engagement
- Job Creation
- Educational Opportunities for Staff and Students in STEM Fields
- Student-Led Action
- Introducing Students to Clean Energy Career Opportunities

CONTACT:

- Amanda Schienebeck
- amandas@midwestrenew.org
- 608-217-3281
- MidwestRenew.org/solar-on-schools

